

Info ♥ Pack

Happy Days!

Congratulations! Exciting times! You're putting time and effort- and money- into planning your wedding so you want beautiful photos to take you back to this day knowing it will go too fast.

You want it all captured, the emotions, reactions, the guests having fun, the details.

Make sure you get a photographer on the same wavelength as you, somebody you can relax with, have fun with and trust.

This pack is to explain a bit more how I work and what to expect so you are confident you will get what you want

FAQs- 1

Do you have packages and can we change them?

Yes to both. I have 3 packages you can add to so you get exactly what you want.

Do you need a deposit and if so how much?

Yes a deposit books the date so we're both committed. You can pay 40% at booking and the remainder one month before the wedding or pay monthly . As you prefer.

How long do you stay at the wedding?

My packages are for 8 hours but you can add more. Off peak you can also buy per hour if you're having a smaller wedding. I prefer to stay from preparations to after the first dance to tell the whole story.

How many photos do we get and can we print them?

For 8 hours a minimum of 300, usually more.

They'll be ready within a few days.

Yes you have permission to print and share them.

Are you insured? do you have back-up equipment?

Yes, both, of course. Things fail, I need plan Bs

Whatever your style

FAQs-2

Do you shoot my kind of wedding.?

What matters in my eyes is your love.
So far I have shot Christian, Hindu, Muslim, Baha'i, Pagan, Humanist, Multi-faith and registry weddings, Straight and gay weddings, traditional and alternative. I'm happy to learn about other ideas and cultures. I shoot pre and post weddings ceremonies such as sagai, vidhi, mehndi and vow renewals. I shoot weddings all over UK and abroad too

Do you offer...?

You can get albums, invites and signing books from your pre-wedding shoot, parents' albums, thank you cards, and a whole range of frames and wall art. I can also provide a second shooter.

Do you do group shots?

I know they're important, so yes. You'll find that natural photos of your friends and family are more real and emotional though. Group shots take about 5 min each so think of limiting them to the main ones. And do leave time for photos of the two of you alone.

Pre-wedding Photoshoot

Get in touch with me early to check I'm free

Ask me anything you're not sure of. Whenever possible, I prefer to meet up to see if it "feels" right.

We can also phone, and email to make sure you're happy with everything. When you're ready:

- I'll send you a contract and a quote you can accept online. When the deposit - or the first payment if you pay monthly- is paid, we're booked!
- Later, I'll send you an contact details sheet.
- We do the pre-wedding shoot at least 3 weeks before your day to get your signing book ready on time.
- I'll send you a timing sheet so we're on the same page.
- I'll get to the venue early to see it on the day.
- If time allows- during dinner usually, I'll do a sneak-peek slideshow so you can see the ceremony's photos
- I do need to eat though and it's better if I'm with the guests so I don't miss anything.
- After the wedding, you'll see your photos within a few days. You can ask for black and whites if you want.
- When you're happy you get your lovely USB.
- You choose photos online for your album, I design it, and you proof it. When you're happy it takes 2 weeks to print it. I'll check it and give it to you.
- I'll do a virtual album of your wedding highlights on YouTube.

I wrote some guides and tips to help you plan your wedding so look around the site, or ask me. I'll be happy to bounce ideas, recommend vendors, ask around if I don't know and lend you things if I have them.

You'll also get offers and discounts on further shoots and so will your friends if they come recommended by you.

I look forward to hearing from you and sharing your wonderful day. Alix
