

THE BISHOPSTROW HOTEL & SPA

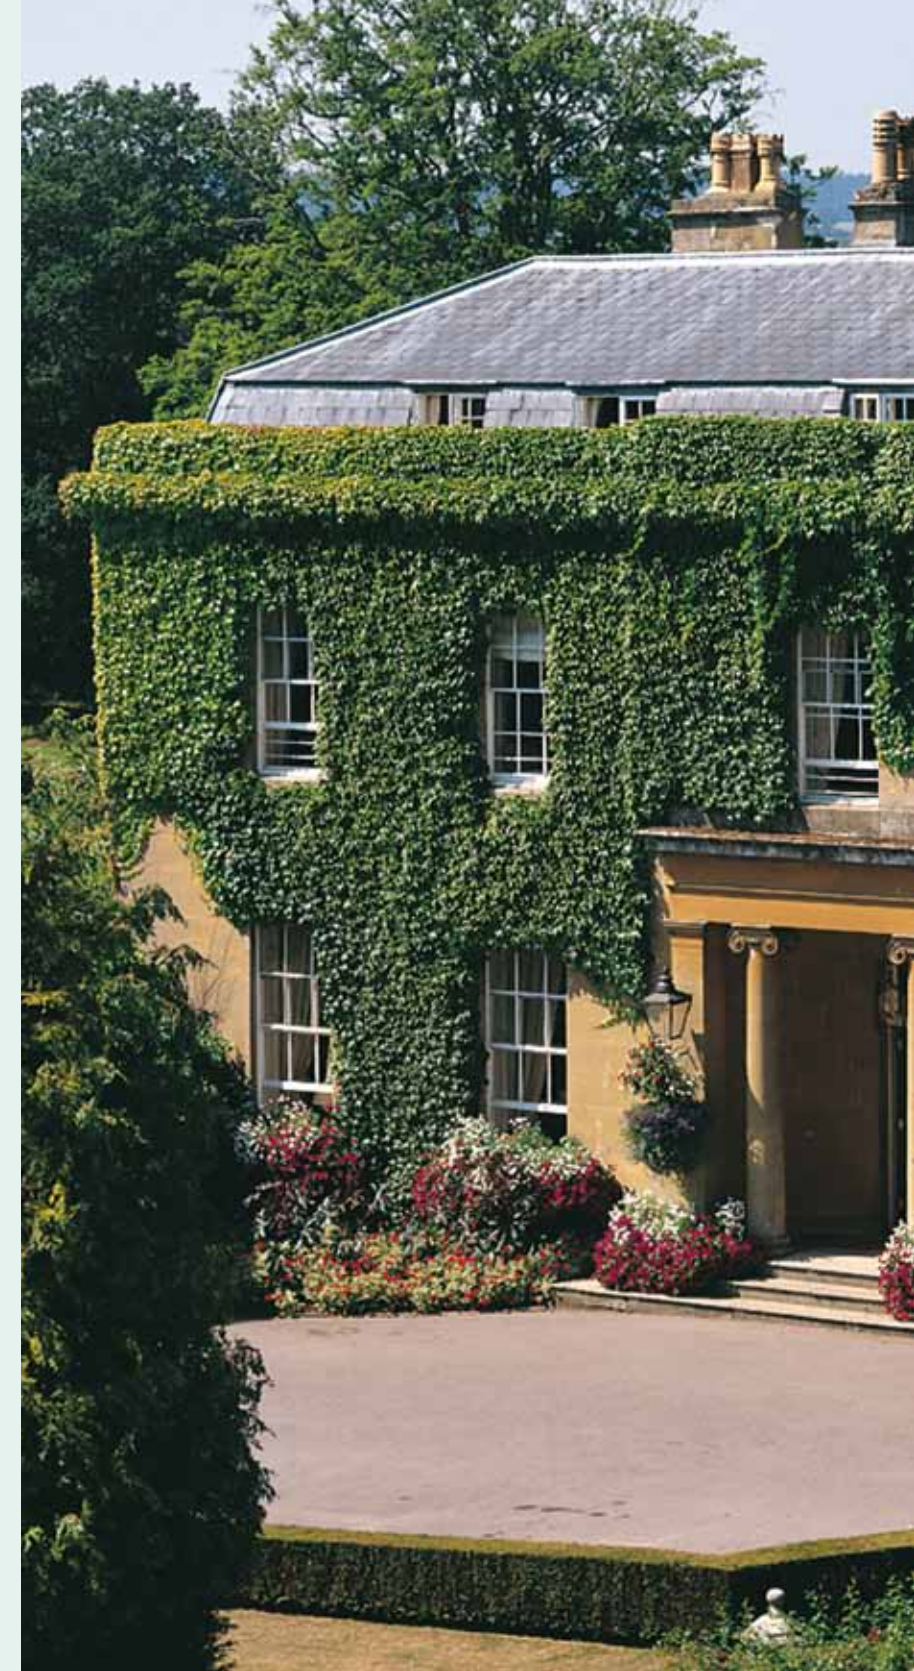

— WEDDINGS —

Your invitation

We invite you to explore this most prestigious country house hotel set in mature, landscaped gardens on the banks of the River Wylde.

Join us as we take you on an unforgettable journey from your engagement to the most important day of your life – your wedding.

Style that lasts

Built in the classic Georgian style in 1817, The Bishopstrow Hotel & Spa is the finest example of understated elegance with a modern twist which makes us the ideal venue for your special day.

Step inside and admire its classic character and contemporary features including a central staircase and boutique health spa.

Walk outside and admire the breathtaking views of our lawns and gardens along with a picturesque Doric Temple with the banks of the River Wylde stretching out before you - the perfect setting for your wedding photographs.

Rest easy

Individuality and attention to detail are the watchwords of our service at The Bishopstrow Hotel & Spa.

You can be sure that all your wedding preparations will be handled with the utmost professionalism and personal care.

This individuality is reflected in the design of our bedrooms, all beautifully appointed but each with their own unique personality and charm.

Plan your perfect day

The Bishopstrow Hotel has a variety of beautiful ceremony and reception rooms providing the perfect setting for small and intimate weddings or large family occasions. Unique to The Bishopstrow Hotel is our riverside Doric Temple which is licenced for civil ceremonies. Our 27 acres provides an ideal setting for the use of a marquee.

Exclusive use is a popular choice allowing your party the complete control of this stunning country house hotel.

Whatever the size or scale of the ceremony our Wedding Planner will ensure that you and your guests celebrate a day to remember.

Taste the difference

The Bishopstrow Hotel is renowned for its excellent cuisine and fine dining.

Our award-winning chefs use the finest ingredients, sourced locally wherever possible.

Take your seats in your dining room, combining the modern furnishings with contemporary interiors and floor to ceiling windows overlooking the hotel lawns, across a charming outdoor terrace.

Enjoy private moments together

For more intimate weddings we can offer our guests the Wilton Room. This elegantly furnished room with a decadent chandelier and ornate fireplace adds a real sense of warmth and grandeur amongst rich surroundings, with large Georgian windows allowing the sunlight to stream through.

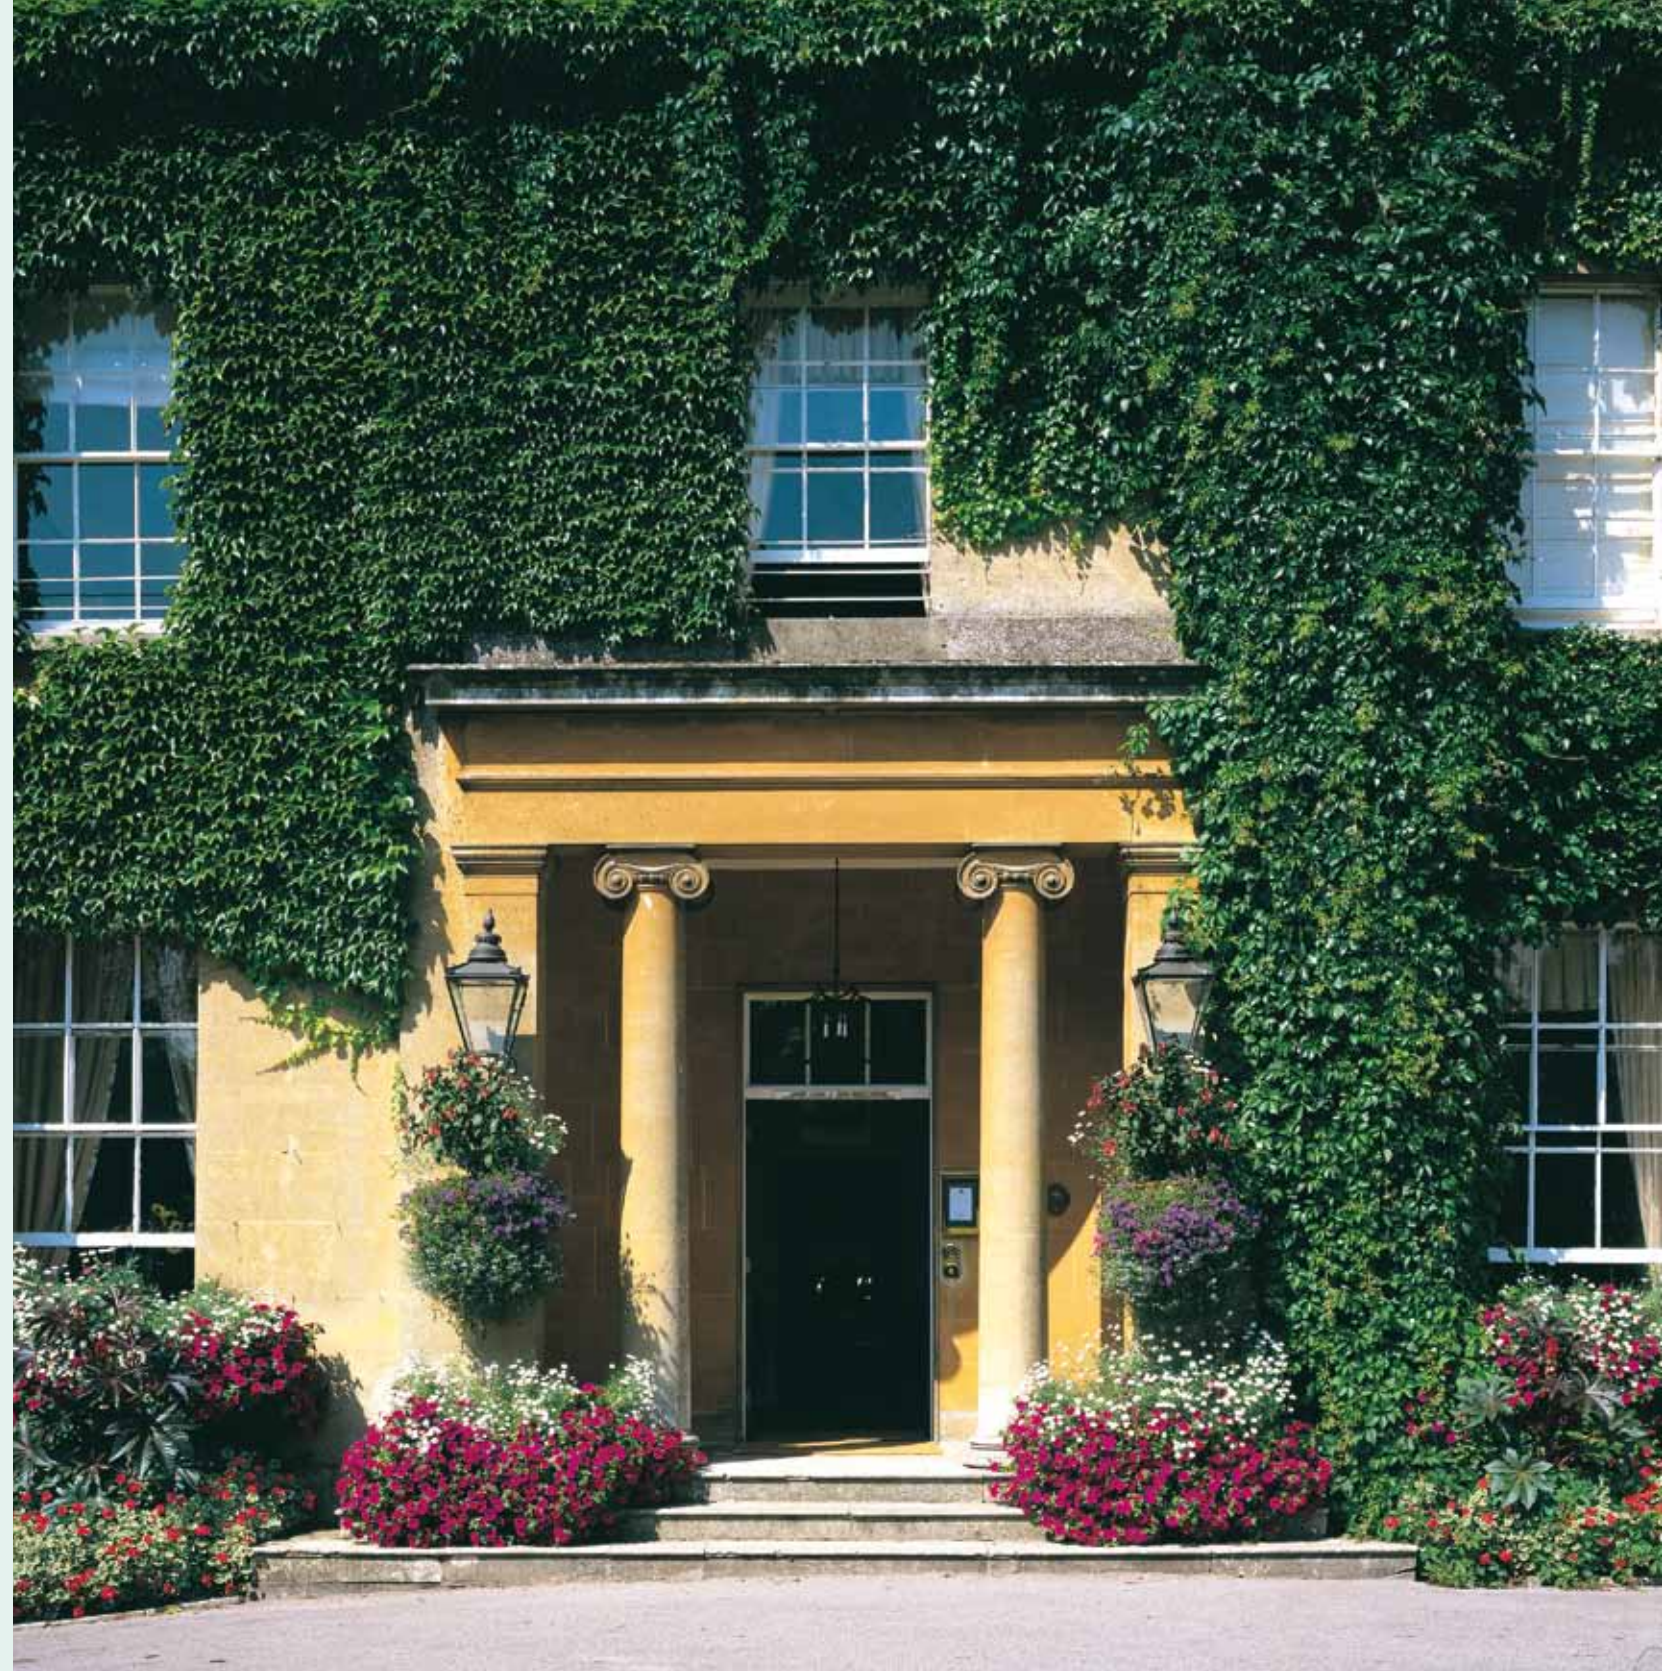

Take a closer look

Words and pictures alone cannot describe this haven of luxury accommodation and relaxation.

Now that you have familiarized yourself with the hotel, we invite you to sample The Bishopstrow Hotel experience.

Contact our Wedding Planner to arrange a personal viewing of this prestigious and much sought - after country house hotel.

You can be assured that our dedicated team will work with you to create your perfect day in a very special place.
