CEREMONY

Hopetoun can offer you a wonderful setting to exchange your wedding vows with the choice of a civil, religious or humanist service.

THE ADAM STABLES

Minimum 60 guests/maximum 160 guests

Our largest and most popular location for Wedding Ceremonies is the elegant Adam Stables. Its many design features such as wrought iron lanterns, candle sconces and large Georgian windows give a romantic atmosphere in which to exchange your vows. A secluded cobbled courtyard with imposing clock tower entrance provides a dramatic backdrop for your arrival photographs.

For a smaller Wedding Ceremony, Hopetoun can offer a choice of locations each with their own character and style.

RECEPTION

As one of Scotland's most exclusive wedding venues, Hopetoun can guarantee attention to detail, delicious food and drink, and superior and imaginative service to ensure your wedding is a resounding success and truly a day to remember.

THE ADAM BALLROOM

Minimum 60 guests/maximum 250 guests

Adorned with priceless tapestries and featuring magnificent crystal chandeliers, the Ballroom and adjoining Tapestry Room are unique and unforgettable rooms in which to celebrate your wedding. On arrival, guests can enjoy champagne, canapés and music by a roaring log fire or, if the weather is fine, in the Colonnades outside whilst your bridal party's photographs are taken in a secluded spot in the grounds or within the State Apartments.

Decorated with your choice of stunning floral displays and table linen, the Adam Ballroom never fails to impress your guests when revealed. After the banquet and speeches, the bar opens in the Tapestry Room and the party starts in the Ballroom with the first dance. For a truly memorable end to your day, surprise your guests with a pipe band Beating Retreat under floodlight or even combine this with a fantastic fireworks display overlooking the Forth Bridges.

If you are planning to invite more than 160 guests to your wedding then the Adam Stables is ideal for a champagne and canapé reception followed by the wedding banquet and dancing in the beautiful Ballroom. Alternatively, a smaller wedding can be accommodated in either the State Apartments or Adam Stables.
