BARRINGTON AYRE

SHIRTMAKER & TAILOR

FOREWORD

My name is Tom Wharton. I had long felt there was a gap in the market for fine tailor-made clothing as unique and individual as the wearer but without the "Saville Row" price tag.

With this aim in mind I set out to explore the fabric mills of England and Scotland looking for beautiful and exciting fabrics.

In Yorkshire I found an expert team of cutters, tailors and seamstresses who shared my dream.

In 2009 I founded Barrington Ayre Shirtmaker & Tailor offering luxury affordable clothing to our clients. Our bespoke garments range from traditional classic to more contemporary styles and we are proud to be "Made in England".

I hope this brochure will inspire you and give you an insight into my vision and the unique personal service that we offer.
