littleladiesandlords is a family business that has grown from a love of nostalgic, beautiful, children's wear.

Our beautiful timeless collections are designed and lovingly hand crafted in-house at our studio tucked away within the South Downs in West Sussex.

At the heart of all our garments you will find British Heritage and tradition. Every garment is made from 100% pure British or Harris Tweed.

We believe in high quality British design, our garments are made to order by our small team of exceptional craftspeople, so that every customer can become part of the process by creating their own unique combination of tweeds, linings and trims.

We believe the waistcoat remains synonymous with sophistication. However, it's versatility allows it to be styled for formal occasions as well as dressed down with a pair of jeans and a cool T. A large majority of our waistcoat orders are from brides-to-be for this very reason. Our waistcoats make a fabulous alternative to the customary suit for pageboys and have the added benefit of being wearable after the big day.

Inspired by nostalgic childhood movies such as, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and Mary Poppins. Our traditional garments offer great charm with a sentimental vintage touch. Our philosophy is to create garments of exceptional quality that will capture imaginations.

We pride ourselves in selecting the finest British and Harris Tweeds for our garments. It is an honour to be creating clothing from cloth that is rich with heritage and distinction.

These beautiful cloths remain synonymous with luxury and quality.

Starting with the sheep, only the best natural raw materials are selected. When the wool arrives at the prestigious British and Isle of Harris Mills it follows an elaborate process of dyeing and blending before it is woven.

Harris tweed is still to this day woven by registered weavers at their homes on traditional looms on the Isle of Harris.

In response to the overwhelming requests from our customers, 2017 saw the launch of Adult sizes.

We are proud to be handcrafting waistcoats for Grooms, Fathers of the Brides and Pageboys. Our bespoke service allows our customers to become part of the process, designing their own unique waistcoats, selecting their desired Tweed and customising the style with their choice of lining and buttons.

Our 'Iris' cape has proved incredibly popular with our grown up customers and we are honored to be creating beautiful crafted luxury garments from the highest quality British and Harris Tweeds for the whole family.
