

Experience the Magic

Broyle's Place

A setting for all seasons

The Great Hall can accommodate up to 50 wedding guests for your Civil Ceremony.

A galleried staircase and red carpet provide a majestic entrance for the Bride, and the splendid Inglenook fireplace decked with candles is the perfect romantic setting for the signing of the register.

The Boat House is the perfect outdoor setting for your civil ceremony accommodating up to 250 guests.

The ideal location for your special day

Broyle Place is a splendid Grade II listed Elizabethan Manor House. Once belonging to the Archbishop of Canterbury and Queen Elizabeth I, this privately owned home is set in 30 acres of glorious grounds and woodlands, enjoying a truly peaceful and beautiful position in the Sussex countryside.

Enter through the wrought iron gates and sweeping driveway bordered by an ancient moat, extensive lawns and magnificent oaks. Climbing roses and wisteria frame the front of the house, and once inside, Broyle Place exudes a warm, intimate and elegant atmosphere.

Exclusively yours

This enchanting country house, steeped in history will be exclusively yours throughout your stay, providing the perfect backdrop for your unique and special occasion. A magical setting for your perfect day.

This magnificent 12th century estate with an ancient moat and acres of lawns and beautiful gardens, combines exclusivity and a personal touch to create the perfect venue for your special day.

The exclusive venue of Broyle Place provides a perfect blend of beauty, elegance and tradition to your wedding day.
