ISAACS ON THE QUAY

Set alongside a scenic harbour, Isaacs on the Quay makes a beautiful wedding venue.

Once partly derelict and at risk of being lost forever, Isaacs on the Quay is a Grade 1 listed building that dates back to early 15th Century and is now one of the most popular venues in Suffolk.

Isaacs on the Quay has been lovingly restored and is now well known for its unique and relaxed atmosphere.

THE CEREMONY ROOM

With the Ceremony Room and its magnificent exposed timber beams, vaulted ceilings, beautiful décor and atmospheric lighting, the most popular phrase we hear is “wow”.

Accommodating up to 80 guests, the Ceremony Room’s enchanting ambience makes it the perfect place for a wedding ceremony and can be arranged to your taste and to suit your number of guests.

‘AT ISAACS, YOU ARE UNIQUE....’

We can be involved in as much or as little of the fine details as you like. We can supply chair covers, flowers, a photographer, a video producer, or we’re equally happy to work with yours.

There is a trend for weddings to become less traditional as couples no longer want to do what everyone else does, they want to do it their way. That is at the heart of what weddings at Isaacs on the Quay are about.

Why not extend your Wedding Day by booking the Merchant's Guest House? Built in 1636, the house is a captivating place to stay either before the 'I do's' or for your first night and will help you feel relaxed, comfortable and "at home" long before the guests arrive.

The Guest House boasts four double rooms, sleeping up to 14 people, including the stunning Bridal Suite, beautiful views of Ipswich's waterfront and is full of charming historical features.

FINE CUISINE

With catering from Isaacs on the Quay you can expect fine food. Whether you choose a simple buffet, an elegant dining experience, or want to break from tradition and go for something entirely different, selecting from one of our three menus.

We are flexible and can make things as formal or as relaxed as you want them to be and can cater for special dietary requirements and allergies.

Choose from our range of carefully chosen fine wines and champagnes, or if you'd simply prefer a cup of tea, that's possible too!

We want you to have a happy day filled with what is most important to you and we will be happy to assist with your best interests at heart.

LET US HELP

Of course, it's more than a party; it's your wedding day. It's too important to leave details to chance.

We love what we do and we take organising a wedding very seriously. Behind the scenes it takes almost military precision and fanatical attention to detail to make everything look this relaxed! Our professionalism, experience and organisational flexibility are on hand to ensure you simply have to focus on enjoying your day.

Our role on the day is to be there when you need us but to be virtually invisible when you don't. We are in the background providing a discreet helping hand, making sure everything happens when it should and ensuring your guests are happy, relaxed and well looked after.
