Rooms and suites

Leigh Court has a range of rooms and suites available for you to celebrate your special day. Each room has a unique decor, from the grand Great Hall to the elaborate Tapestry Room, and a guest capacity to suit any reception.

The Great Hall

The Great Hall, with a double staircase and high ceilings, makes for a grand bridal entrance. Our most popular location for ceremonies, The Great Hall is also a great place for your wedding cake display, a harpist, string quartet or live band*. We can also host your evening buffet in The Great Hall, from finger and ploughman's buffets to cheese boards. *excluding evening entertainment

Library - maximum 109 guests

The spacious Library is a great location for your wedding breakfast, with room for all of your nearest and dearest. Want to dance the night away? Dining tables quickly disappear and are replaced with a shimmering dancefloor as your live band or DJ starts to play. During the warmer months, the doors of the Library open directly onto the rolling, manicured lawn - the ideal viewing spot for a fireworks display.

Tapestry Room - maximum 56 guests

The Tapestry Room is elaborately decorated, with stunning gold finishes and a decorative ceiling. Why not start your special day here, with live music, canapes and a cake display. Adjoining the Library, the Tapestry Room is also a great option for a childrens play area.

Morning Room - maximum 56 guests

The Morning Room adjoins the Library and sits to the right of the outer hall when you enter the house, making it a lovely option for a 'snug room' serving tea and coffee for guests.

Salon - maximum 56 guests

The Salon sits at the rear of the house and is accessed through The Great Hall and the Tapestry Room. The Salon is a lovely room to serve canapes and provide occasional tables for your guests.

Lounge - maximum 32 guests

The Lounge area features a fireplace, leather armchairs and a fully stocked bar, a cosy room for guests to catchup and relax.
