

Herriots Hotel

Creates Your Perfect Day

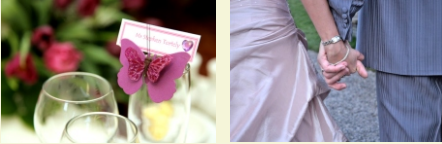

*Your Personal
Wedding Guide
Planner*

We are with you every step of the way . . .

Creating a day as individual as you are!

At Herriots we understand that your wedding day is as individual as you are and should therefore reflect your personalities. Our wedding co-ordinator will be with you every step of the way to help you plan your day and advise on the personal touches that will make it special for the both of you, your family and friends.

Just as importantly and unlike many of the larger hotels, they will also be there on the day so that you can relax and savour every moment, whilst we take care of all the details.

There are many things to consider when getting married and so it is important that firstly, you discuss as a couple, how you would like your wedding day to be. What type of ceremony would you like? Do you want to get married in a church or have a civil ceremony?

What things are important to you – specific date, location, food, colour scheme, entertainment, numbers of guests etc. You then need to prioritise these things and plan your budget so that you get the most from your special day!

We are a privately owned hotel and pride ourselves on individuality. We have over 21 years of experience in bringing to life the thoughts, wishes and dreams of each of our couples, helping them to create their special day.

We recognise that already, you have a lot to think about and therefore have put this guide together to help you start to plan your day exactly how you want it.

. . . in creating your dream day!

Setting the scene

An important factor for many couples is choosing a venue that provides a romantic setting for their photographs that will capture the memories of their special day for years to come.

for couples and their photographer.

Our picturesque courtyard creates a sheltered sun trap for reception drinks, whilst the conservatory, which overlooks it, is an equally charming backdrop whatever the weather.

The Wedding of Jodie & Malcolm Willsher "We had a really fantastic day. The attention to detail and personal touches from the staff enabled us to relax and enjoy every moment, whilst the canal and Aireville park provided an idyllic setting for our photographs, capturing the magic of our day."

Capture the moment

On your special day the time will fly by! It is important to capture all those important moments and memories to treasure in your future life together.

Bethany Clarke specialises in wedding reportage. This is a candid and exciting way of recording events, which comes from her experience as a professional photo-journalist whose work is featured in national and international publications. Bethany's photographs of your wedding will be a beautiful, creative and detailed record of your special day.

Many of Bethany's photographs are featured within this guide, including most of the ones above, but if you would like to see more of her work or discuss your wedding please contact her via the details below.

Civil Ceremonies, Partnerships, Wedding Breakfasts & Evening Receptions

Once you have decided on when and where you would like to get married the first things you must book before anything else are the church or registrar and the venue.

We hold a civil wedding license for our Restaurant, Conservatory and Rosewood Suite. Civil ceremonies are becoming more and more popular as they give you more flexibility to tailor the ceremony to you. Choosing just the one venue removes the problem and costs of transporting you and your guests from the church to the reception.

The proceedings that relate to a civil wedding ceremony must be organised through Skipton Registry Office.

This must be arranged directly by you as the hotel cannot be involved in the actual ceremony details or take responsibility for any of these arrangements.

We can however, help you choose a suitable room in relation to your numbers and advise you on different room layouts, along with ideas for decorating the room.

Room hire charges are applicable and the type of room most appropriate will depend on your number of guests. The Restaurant - up to 40 guests
The Rosewood Suite - 60 – 100 guests
It is important that your guests are accommodated in an appropriately sized room therefore the hiring of each of the rooms is subject to numbers.

Eat, drink and be married!

Herriots has built a strong reputation within the area, achieving all of its wedding and function business from word of mouth and guests who have attended functions.

The use of creative, exciting menus using fresh local ingredients, ensure that your special event shall be remembered not only for the occasion, but for the cuisine itself.

Our wedding packages offer you a wide selection of menus and dishes from formal wedding breakfasts to more informal celebrations.

“The food was delicious and many of our guests commented on this and the attentiveness of the lovely staff”

To accompany these we offer excellent drinks packages with specially selected aperitifs and fabulous wines.

For your evening reception we are able to offer you a number of options from hot and cold buffets, hot suppers and even BBQs in the courtyard!

A current copy of our packages will accompany this guide, however should you wish to add something of your own, our head chef would be happy to discuss this with you.

Why you should choose Herriots . . .

- Dedicated wedding co-ordinator who will give expert advice in helping you create your special day throughout the planning and on the actual day itself
- Privately owned, celebrating over 21 years of success and hundreds of happy couples
- Fabulous photo opportunities along the canal and Aireville Park
- The opportunity to discuss your menu with our experienced head chef
- A choice of table linen and napkins to co-ordinate with your scheme
- Your chosen main course menu choice cooked for you to sample before your wedding day
- A special rate for the Bridal Suite for the Bride and Groom on the night of your wedding inclusive of full Yorkshire breakfast and ½ bottle of bubbly
- Help and advice on booking other services for your special day

A warm welcome and farewell for you and your guests

Awarded a Certificate of Excellence by Tripadvisor and accredited by the AA and The Deliciously Yorkshire Breakfast brand, for offering quality accommodation, high levels of service and fresh local dishes, shows that you, your family and guests will be looked after by our excellent team of staff from the minute they walk through our door to the minute they leave.

Many of your guests may have travelled a long way, so why not ask about special weekend break packages on offer to your guests.

It's a time when you will also get to see friends and family that you have not had chance to see for a while. Play the host with a fun cocktail and nibbles hour to greet your guests as they arrive in the conservatory, before enjoying dinner together in our Rhubarb restaurant the night before the wedding.

Post-wedding day brunches and Sunday lunches are also becoming very popular as they are a last chance for everyone to spend time together in a relaxed laid-back setting and chat about the great time they have had. Plus all those booking Sunday lunch will receive a FREE late check-out!

The detail is in the planning

In order for us to give your event the attention it deserves we ask that you contact the hotel initially so that we can arrange an appointment for you with our wedding co-ordinator.

This is an exploratory meeting and does not commit you to anything.

At this initial meeting we will show you around the hotel and offer advice and ideas of how you might wish to plan your day. You may at this time wish to discuss available dates. We also have a portfolio of previous weddings to help give you some ideas.

A provisional booking can be made at this stage however, this may only be held for 14 days.

On confirmation of your date a non-refundable deposit of £400.00 is required to secure your chosen date.

Approximately 12 weeks prior to the wedding, a further more detailed meeting will be held in order to fine-tune every single detail of your magical day.

Things to think about for this meeting include:

Where you would like to receive your guests?

When would you like to cut the cake?

In which order will the speeches be made?

Cake stand and table, present table?

Music and entertainment arrangements along with timings?

When will the cake, favours and place cards be delivered?

Guest accommodation requirements?

Four weeks prior to the wedding reception, we need to receive your final numbers. A pro-forma invoice will then be prepared.

Two weeks prior to the wedding reception full payment is required.

We will then arrange a final detailed appointment to go through all your details one last time.

It is now time to start organising the rest

We are always asked about wedding etiquette, and whilst we can offer you advice about the traditional formalities of weddings, it is very important to remember that this day is your chance to indulge in what you want and really is a day that should be all about you!

However, here are a few pointers that may help about traditional roles.

The Bride

Selects the type of service and chooses hers and her Bridesmaids dresses.

The Bridegroom

Selects the Best Man and Ushers. Buys the ring and pays any church fees. He may also buy presents for the Bridesmaids, Best Man & Ushers as well as flowers for his Bride, her Mother and his Mother, and buttonholes for himself and the Best Man. He arranges and pays for the transport for himself and his Bride.

Best Man

Bridegroom's right hand man. He keeps the ring, organises the Bridegroom to ensure he is on time and checks and ensures all the guests have transport to the reception. At the reception he reads out all the congratulatory telegrams.

The Chief Bridesmaid

Assists the Bride to dress and holds the bouquet during the wedding ceremony.

Bride's Father

Gives the Bride away and receives the guests at the reception.

Bride's Mother

Traditionally she chooses the venue and together with the Bridegroom's Mother arranges a guest list and handles the cake and any catering arrangements.

Seating at the Top Table

Bride's Mother, Groom, Bride, Bride's Father, Groom's Mother and Best Man.

Whilst organising a wedding can be very exciting, it can also be very daunting and sometimes you do not know where to start.

We have therefore put together a list of the most popular things we are asked about with details from people who have all worked with us in bringing to life the hopes and dreams of our couples.

We have not featured any live entertainment, as this is something that is personal to the tastes of the individual. We do however, have an excellent resident DJ and can offer special discounted rates when booked directly through us.

Good luck and we look forward to helping you create the greatest day of your life!

On cloud nine!

You might have considered balloons as a centre piece for your tables but there are many other ways in which they can create fantastic focal points.

The sculpture of such creations is a true art form, encompassing dramatic pillars, arches and cloud nine balloon clusters, which make a great backdrop for the top table.

Not only do these striking creations catch the eye but they also can have great practical uses. You may wish to welcome your receiving line through a balloon arch or use pillars to divide the room.

You may decide to go for something a little different with hot air balloon centre pieces carrying the favours for your guests in their baskets.

Bev's Party Balloons has a long standing relationship with Herriots, providing couples with many novel and stunning ideas to transform your reception rooms uniquely to you and your colour scheme.

Balloon pillars only £35 or buy 2 or more for only £30 each!

Dramatic effects can be created from as little as just £5.50 for table decorations and £35 for a balloon pillar as featured.

There are many different options and designs to choose from which Bev can create your own fairytale setting.
