The Perfect Day

The Legacy Hotel Victoria offers 71 bedrooms, including a honeymoon suite with breath taking sea views. Our selection of function rooms includes four licensed suites, perfect for both a civil wedding ceremony and reception. These rooms offer flexibility for any style and size of wedding from an intimate, relaxed wedding to a grand ceremony for up to 300 guests. Our beautiful pergola is also licensed for ceremonies for up to 120 people, allowing you to get married outdoors overlooking the Atlantic Ocean.

The Wedding Ceremony

As civil ceremony license holders we are proud to offer you the option to spend the whole day under one roof, offering not only convenience but also more relaxation for your guests. Ceremonies can be held during the week or weekends and throughout the year.

Licensed capacities for each room:

Regency Room – 300

Outdoor Pergola – 120

The View Restaurant – 120

Sun Lounge - 80

The Registrar

To book your civil ceremony you must contact Cornwall Registration Office on 0300 1234 181, we will be happy to reserve the function space for you whilst this is confirmed.

Please note that The Legacy Hotel Victoria is not responsible for booking or paying the registrars. The prospective bride and groom must do this direct.

All couples are legally required to give notice of marriage to the Superintendent Registrar in the district in which they live 15 clear days before the day of their marriage.

The View

Ocean View Ballroom

The View Restaurant is a popular choice for wedding couples for both a ceremony and wedding breakfast. With breath-taking views across the bay, beautiful chandeliers and a contemporary style the room offers elegance and comfort, seating approximately 80 guests on round tables.

The Ocean View Ballroom is the perfect space to host your evening reception. It has its own bar, dance floor and stage and can hold up to 400 guests. This room is available until midnight.

The Regency

The Regency provides a perfect, romantic setting for a large civil ceremony or a grand formal wedding breakfast. The room exudes Victorian opulence with grand chandeliers and original features including the band stand in the centre of the room.

This wonderful dining room is the perfect setting for your wedding breakfast, which will accommodate up to 220 guests on beautifully laid round tables. We will be on hand to recommend local suppliers to dress the room with flowers, drapes, lights and chairs covers to transform the room to match your style.

Wedding Traditions

The Bride & Groom

The Bride selects the type of service, her dress and the Bridesmaids' attire, whilst the Bridegroom chooses his Best Man and Ushers, buys the ring and pays the church fees. He may also buy gifts for the Bridesmaids, Best Man and Ushers in gratitude for their help. He buys flowers for the Bride, Bride's mother, his own mother, Bridesmaids and buttonholes for himself and the Best Man. He arranges transport for himself and the Best Man and for the Bride and himself after the wedding.

The Best Man

The Best Man holds the ring and ensures the Bridegroom is on time. He pays the church fees on behalf of the Bridegroom. He checks transport for guests to the reception and travel arrangements for the honeymoon. It is the Best Man's honour to read any congratulatory messages.

The Chief Bridesmaid

The Chief Bridesmaid assists the bride to dress, holds the bouquet during the ceremony and organises other bridesmaids.

The Bride's Father

The father gives the bride away and receives guests at the reception. He pays for the wedding dress, Bridesmaids' dresses, cars (except the Bridegroom's), photographs, church and reception flowers and invitations.

The Bride's Mother

The Bride's mother traditionally takes charge of all the proceedings. She decides the guest list along with the Bridegroom's mother and the venue for the reception. She handles any catering and ensures the wedding cake is ready. After the ceremony, the Bride's mother and father, together with the Bride and Bridegroom and his parents, greet the guest at the reception.
