Welcome to Glasgow's hidden jewel

Fifteen Ninety Nine is a unique venue located within the home of the historic Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow.

A unique setting steeped in history and style

We offer a collection of beautiful rooms and function suites for your special day. Immersed in regal history, each individually styled room offers a variety of choices for your wedding, accommodating between 20 – 150 guests.

This incredible building offers original Rennie Macintosh stained glass windows, striking Victorian fireplaces, sweeping mahogany staircases and spectacular chandeliers.

You and your guests will experience the enthralling character and timeless charm of such rooms as the Princess Alexandra Room, the College Hall and the Lower Library.

With years of experience in hosting events for some of the most important and discerning guests from around the world, you can be assured that you will receive unrivalled service.

We pride ourselves in offering a specialised, quality service while maintaining a stylish yet friendly atmosphere, providing everything you need to create memories you will cherish for the rest of your life.

A warm welcome to Fifteen Ninety Nine

Such a perfect day

Your wedding venue is the backdrop to your celebrations and hosting it at the magnificent Fifteen Ninety Nine ensures your day will be an occasion to remember.

Take the stress out of planning and enjoy your perfect day

Our dedicated events team are vastly experienced and motivated to help deliver an idyllic event, so you can relax and enjoy your day. From the beginning, your personal wedding co-ordinator will be on hand to arrange the whole occasion for you, right down to the most intricate details. Our relationships with local suppliers allow us to secure preferential rates on fresh flowers, photography, entertainment and cakes.

Your perfect day could begin with a ceremony in the Princess Alexandra Room, followed by an intimate champagne reception in the Lower Library. Then celebrate in style with your wedding breakfast, prepared in house by our award-winning chef, in the magnificent College Hall. To end, why not finish by dancing the night away under our spectacular glass ceilings with your family and friends.

We guarantee a seamless service and all the support you need to ensure you and your guests have the perfect day .

The Princess Alexandra Room

An exclusive experience

You will be given exclusive access to our building for your wedding. We have a selection of rooms which accommodate up to 100 people for your ceremony and wedding breakfast, and up to 150 for your evening reception.

Exclusive access to the building for your wedding

With our licence to hold civil ceremonies, we can provide a complete wedding package in the most beautiful settings for you to exchange your vows.

The Princess Alexandra Room exudes elegance and beauty with traditional period features. The original chandelier adds a touch of glamour. The room is named after Her Royal Highness, Princess Alexandra, who became the College's first Royal Honorary Fellow in 1959. Her portrait hangs proudly in the room.

Built in 1892, the College Hall is the largest suite and is one of the grandest. Offering a unique and unforgettable experience for a city centre location, original features include magnificent ceilings, dazzling chandeliers and an impressive Victorian fireplace.

Finally, the Lower Library is a striking room, rich in history and traditional features with books and artefacts dating back to late 19th and early 20th century.

Our beautiful selection of rooms provide the idyllic setting for your perfect day.
