The location and venue

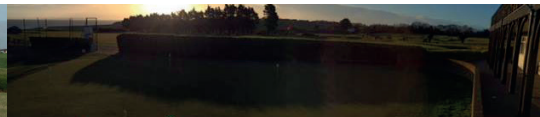

Perched upon a clifftop, with commanding views to the North Sea and lush, emerald greens and fairways, The Clubhouse at North Foreland Golf Club is a light, modern and spacious building.

We offer two private function suites for ceremonial and reception use, both of which are flooded with natural light and have stunning views.

The Lighthouse Brasserie, an impressive space situated on the ground floor of The Clubhouse, is suited to more formal events and dining, and has its own lounge and bar area. A dance floor can also be provided in this space.

The Northcliffe Bar, with its outdoor balcony, is situated on the upper floor and provides the perfect location for an evening reception.

There is ample free-parking for your guests, and should they, or you, wish to arrive in style, we have our own helicopter landing pad.

Marriage and partnership ceremonies

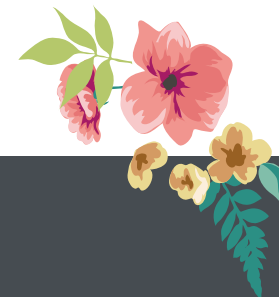

North Foreland Golf Club is licensed for civil marriage, partnership and renewal-of-vows ceremonies.

Should you wish to hold your ceremony at North Foreland Golf Club, your marriage service will be held in The Lighthouse Brasserie. The room will be laid out in traditional ceremonial style, complete with aisle.

After your ceremony, there will be ample time for photographs outside and your guests will be provided with pre-reception drinks and canapes in The Northcliffe Bar. In the meantime, The Lighthouse Brasserie will be dressed to host your wedding breakfast and reception.

Please note: North Foreland Golf Club is not available for ceremonial use only. A ceremony can only be conducted in conjunction with a wedding breakfast or reception. Due to licensing restrictions, we can only accommodate 80 guests for the actual marriage / partnership service.

Menus and drinks packages

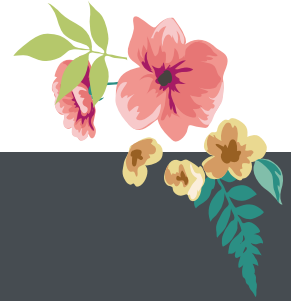

To help you in your wedding planning, we offer three different wedding menu package options ranging from the classic wedding breakfast to something completely different. We understand that each wedding is unique, so alongside the menu packages offered, our Head Chef can work with you to design a menu that reflects your day and tastes. We can cater for all special dietary needs, and can create menus for your younger guests too.

For weddings of over 85 guests, we offer complimentary menu and wine tasting for you and your partner.

We also offer a selection of drinks packages. Each package covers arrival drinks, wine and soft options over dinner through to sparkling choices for the toast.

For more information, please see our wedding dining and drinks packages brochure.

History of North Foreland Golf Club

North Foreland Golf Club is uniquely situated at Kingsgate, on the Kentish down lands overlooking the crossroads of the North Sea and the English Channel. This little corner of East Kent, on which the golf course stands today, is steeped in history with many tales to tell.

Altered many times itself in its 300 year life, the North Foreland Lighthouse stands sentinel across the valley, witness to many changes to the North forelands landscape. Kingsgate, once a poor little fishing village and refuge for smugglers later became the 18th century grand estate of Lord Holland, Lord of the Treasury, Secretary of War, Pay Master General, leader of the House of Commons and 'Defaulter of the Public Purse'.

At the end of the 19th century, part of the estate was purchased by Sir William Capel Slaughter, founder of the international law firm, Slaughter and May, and where, in 1903, he laid out the first golf course at North Foreland. On the death of Sir William, Lord Northcliffe, newspaper magnate and owner of the Times and several other publications moved into his summer retreat at Elmwood in Reading Street and in 1918 purchased and enlarged the golf course to what it is today. He built a new clubhouse, then a single storey building from which, during World War 2, club members would sit on the veranda watching skywards as the Battle of Britain raged overhead.

Today, North Foreland Golf Club offers a versatile light and airy venue with stunning views for any celebratory occasion including weddings, parties, formal dinners & corporate events served by experienced and friendly staff.

If you are interested in viewing our venue, please contact our Hospitality Manager, Nicola, to arrange a convenient time.
