Simply perfect...

On your special day you deserve a special place to be the centre of attention. An enchanting place that exudes luxury and contemporary styling yet retains fairytale original features and historic charm. A place that captivates friends and family, caters to your every need and creates happy memories that last a lifetime.

We believe at Mosborough Hall we've created such a place and in this brochure we hope to share a taste of it with you.

Simply breathtaking...

Set in six acres of countryside on the Derbyshire and Yorkshire border, Mosborough Hall has been sympathetically restored to recapture many of its original features. The Hall strives to deliver the high standards expected from this exquisite wedding venue.

Just imagine joining your partner at the altar of our historic Hall, stepping out on to rolling lawns to greet guests, sipping champagne and savouring fine foods prepared just to your liking...

Simply unique...

From intimate civil ceremonies of four guests to wedding banquets for two hundred and fifty, at Mosborough Hall we create unique occasions for unique people. Each of our rooms licensed for civil weddings is different in decor, size and aspect and we know one will find a place in your heart.

Our wedding co-ordinators are at your disposal and with experience of hosting over fifteen hundred weddings we know we can make your dream day a reality.

Simply relaxing...

The days leading up to your wedding can be a stressful time, so at Mosborough Hall we've put together a range of optional pre-nuptial beauty treatments to wash away those pre-wedding nerves. Lie back, relax and let our beauty experts massage away your worries.

From facials, make up, manicures and pedicures to holistic therapies and tailor made his and her pamper packages. We won't just leave you feeling revitalised we'll help you look and feel a million dollars too.

Simply irresistible...

At Mosborough Hall we know the food presented on your wedding day will be remembered by guests long after they leave. Our dedicated chefs therefore work tirelessly with local ingredients, ethically sourced produce and carefully selected fine wines to tempt the taste buds and invigorate the senses.

From a wedding buffet, to barbeque or grand banquets, we create a menu to suit your budget and the dietary requirements of guests, ensuring the wow factor from presentation to palate.

Simply exquisite...

Crack open the champagne, kick off your shoes and take time to reflect on your whirlwind day in one of our two beautiful bridal suites. These exquisite rooms combine old world charm with contemporary soft furnishings and state of the art wet rooms.

For your guests we also have preferential rates on our forty-four luxurious bedrooms all with modern facilities, vi-spring beds, Egyptian cotton sheets and feather down duvets for that home from home feel.

Simply memorable...

The wedding ceremony over, it's reception time and at Mosborough Hall we know how to party. Our lavish function rooms have an instant wow factor, our little black book of entertainment options for all musical tastes, and our food, well that speaks for itself.

Indoors or outside in the courtyard, a small group of friends or with hundreds of guests at Mosborough Hall you can drink, dine and dance the night away with a reception to remember.
