Welcome to Stoke Place

A secret treasure hidden behind an ancient wall, 17th century Stoke Place is a reinvention of the traditional country house. This luxurious location blends original features with handpicked modern flourishes and 26 acres of stunning parkland originally designed by legendary landscape gardener Capability Brown.

This substantial Queen Anne manor house – set on the border between picturesque Buckinghamshire and Berkshire, yet within 30 minutes of central London – is the dream wedding venue to host your perfect day.

Award-winning Stoke Place's stylish buildings and beautiful grounds serve as a picture perfect backdrop for your special day – made even more exceptional when you add our skilled wedding manager and dedicated operations team.

Your wedding, your way

Stoke Place, once a family home, has a fine pedigree when it comes to celebrations.

Built in 1690, this William and Mary style manor house with its picture perfect grounds earned a reputation for hosting grand parties famous for aristocratic antics. More than 300 years later, it is ready to play host to the most important celebration of your life.

When you choose exclusive use of the opulent Stoke Place, you'll receive use of all the public and private rooms in the hotel – 26 acres of gardens and all 39 bedrooms.

Exclusive use of Stoke Place runs from midday on the day of your wedding until 9am the following morning – although you can round off the celebrations in style with a group Champagne breakfast until 11am.

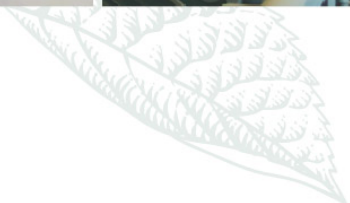

But if you want to treat yourself and your guests to the ultimate in indulgent celebrations, why not opt for a wedding weekend? You'll enjoy exclusive use of the hotel for two nights, so you can enhance your big day with extras like a Friday barbecue and a Sunday brunch! We can even organise activities like clay pigeon shooting or pampering.
