A: Yes, we offer accommodation for more than one night depending on availability.

Q: How many people can stay at Ardington House?

A: 9 double bedrooms are available for up to 18 guests. Our sister venue in the village (Barton House) also has 9 double rooms available for up to 18 guests and there are plenty of other nearby hotels.

Q: Can we bring our own alcohol?

A: I'm afraid that we do not offer corkage but have very flexible and generous drinks packages to offer.

Q: What does the Barton Events team include?

A: When booking our preferred caterers they include everything you will need from Event Management, staff, glassware, linen and all other tableware. These costs are within the menu prices which you will find on our Food & Drink section of our website. Alternatively we can email you the full menus on request.

Q: Can we have our wedding service outside?

A: Many of our guests choose to get married in the beautiful surroundings of the Temple Island. If you are concerned about the weather you can hire a gazebo to cover the island, alternatively you can hold the wedding in the Imperial Hall which has capacity for up to 60 guests seated or 80 standing.

Q: Is it possible to arrive/leave the Island by boat?

A: Our boatman Tony has a lovely vintage craft decorated with bunting which is ready for your use. If you are interested in this option, please talk to the Ardington House events team.

Q: Can we use an outside caterer for our wedding?

A: Almost all our guests choose to use Barton House Catering for their catering requirements, but if you would prefer to use outside caterers, this is of course possible subject to a fixed surcharge of £2000 for up to 120 guests and £15 per person + vat thereafter.

Please do get in touch to book a no obligation tour of the house and grounds with our Office Events Manager, Charlie.
